IETF SUPPORTER BADGE LICENSE TERMS

As an IETF community participant and supporter, you may use the IETF Supporter Badge to indicate your involvement in IETF standards development activities and otherwise to promote your IETF-related activity and support of the IETF, subject to your agreement to these IETF Supporter Badge License Terms:

· You are granted a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, worldwide license to use the IETF Supporter Badge solely to demonstrate your involvement with, and support of, the Internet Engineering Task Force ("IETF") and related activities.

· Your licensed use of the IETF Supporter Badge is subject to the following restrictions:

o The format, capitalization, proportions and color of the IETF Supporter Badge must be exactly as set forth at https://www.ietf.org/badges and may not be modified or revised in any way.

o You may not shorten, abbreviate or modify the IETF Supporter Badge or use it as part of a combined mark.

o You may not use the IETF Supporter Badge in any manner that may create confusion as to the origin of a product or service, such as on any product or its packaging.

o Your use of the IETF Supporter Badge may not create a sense of endorsement or sponsorship by the Internet Engineering Task Force, the IETF Trust, Internet Research Task Force, the Internet Society, the Internet Architecture Board, the Internet Engineering Steering Group, or the IETF Administration LLC or imply a false association with any of those entities or groups.

o Your use of the IETF Supporter Badge must not depict the IETF or its related entities and activities in a false or derogatory light.

This license to the IETF Supporter Badge does not grant you any rights to use any other IETF trademark or logo, which are subject to the license requirements of the IETF Trust.

The IETF Trust may terminate the rights and licenses granted to you with respect to the IETF Supporter Badge at any time and for any reason in its sole discretion. Upon notice of such termination, you will immediately cease all use of the IETF Supporter Badge.
